4Di Office

The new office space of 4Di Group contains the first ever, Boskke Sky Planter room divider.

Located in Rondebosch, Cape Town, the company took up residence on 18th February 2013 after a complete redesign by interior consultants Bone Studios.

ESET CEO Carey van Vlaanderen says "We are so excited to take on the year in & be in such a brilliant and new environment. We can only produce fresh, agile and innovative ideas and solutions in this space."

The entire space, once a building exhibition area, was redesigned and managed by Bone Studios under the supervision of Nicola Hobson & Hayley Dickson.

Nicola Hobson says, "The most eye-catching feature of the entire office is the hanging garden, comprising 48

Sky Planters". PHOTOS Micky Hoyle PRODUCTION
